The Mason & Hamlin Organ Co. are making one of their Cabinet or Parlor Organs for the King of Sweden. They recently furnished one for the celebrated Dr. Franz Liszt, of Germany. In acknowledging its receipt, he wrote: "It fully justifies the remarkable, well-founded and wide-spread renown of these superb instruments." Mr. Ira D. Sankey, whose opportunities for testing and comparing such instruments have been remarkable, always uses a Mason & Hamilin Organ in the Moody and Sankey meetings, and recently selected one for Mr. Moody's church in Chicago.

Vienna Rolls.

To one quart of flour add two teaspoonfuls of Dooley's Yeast Powder, sift thoroughly, put in a little salt, and rub a tablespoonful of lard or butter through the flour; use enough sweet milk for a soft dough, roll out and cut with a round cutter; fold over like a turn-over, wetting the edges with milk to make them adhere; wash over with milk to give them a gloss, place in a pan so they will not touch each other, and bake fifteen or twenty minutes. They are delicious.

In the Senate, on the 30th, a number of unimportant bills were introduced and referred. Senator Coke introduced a bill making an appropriation to pay over to Texas the residue of $5,000,000 reserved for the satisfaction of that portion of the public debt of the late republic of Texas for which duties on imports of said republic were specially pledged, being the balance remaining after the payment of such debt. He also introduced a bill to reimburse Texas for expenses incurred in repelling invasions of Indians and Mexicans. Both were referred. A number of appointments were confirmed in executive session.....There was no session of the House.

In the Senate, on the 31st, a number of bills were introduced and referred, among them one by Senator Ingalls to provide for them one by Senator Ingalls to provide for public buildings at Topeka, Kansas....In the House, Mr. Ewing, from the Committee on Banking and Currency, reported the following bill: "That the third section of the act entitled 'An act to provide for the resumption of specie payments," approved January 14, 1875, be and is hereby repealed." Mr. Ewing moved that the bill be ordered printed and recommitted, which was carried without division. Mr. Ewing then moved to reconsider that vote, his object being thus to retain control of the bill, and to be able to call it up at any time. Mr. Conger moved to lay the motion to reconsider on the table. The Speaker: "The vote on that motion will be a practical test of the sense of the House." A vote was thereupon taken by yous and nays on Mr. Conger's motion to lay on the table if emotion to reconsider the vote recommitting the bill to the Committee on Banking and Currency, and the motion was rejected—yeas

In the Senate, on the 1st, a number of bills were introduced and referred. Senator Armstrong presented a memorial of the Kansas City Board of Trade, favoring the repeal of the specie resumption act, remonetization of silver, and also the Tesolution of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange favoring a repeal of the bankrupt law, both of which were referred. She Senate went into executive session, and, when the doors were reopened, adjourned.....In the House Mr. Goode asked leave to offer a resolution, declaring that, in the judgment of the House, the action of the President in withdrawing troops from South Carolina and Louisiana was wise and just and constitutional; that it has contributed in a large degree to the restoration of peace and harmony throughout the country, and is entitled to receive the cordial support of all men who realize that, while there is a North and a South and an East and a West, there is but one country, one Constitution, and one destiny. Mr. Phillips objected, and the resolution went over under the rules. Mr. Ewing called up his motion to reconsider the vote of yesterday, recommitting to the Committee on Banking and Currency his bill to repeal the third section of the Resumption act. The opponents of the bill resorted to parliamentary factics to consume the morning hour before the main question could be got before the House except during the morning hour, when like tactics are available to postpone action on it from day to day.

In the Senate, on the 2d, the death of Senwere introduced and referred. Senator Armstrong presented a memorial of the Kansas

In the Senate, on the 2d, the death of Senator Morton was announced, and a resolution providing for the appointment of six Senators to attend the funeral was agreed to. As a furthur mark of respect, the Senate adjourned till Tuesday next.... In the House, Mr. Atkins, Chairman of the Appropriation Committee, reported the Army Appropriation bill, which was referred to the Committee of the Whole and made the special order for Wednesday next. The bill appropriates $25,723.09. After the call of committees was concluded, the Speaker announced that the Committee on Banking and Carrency heid the floor for the remainder of the morning hour. Mr. Ewing withdrew his motion to recommit the bill repealing the Bestumption act, and accepted Mr. Fort's bill as a substitute. Mr. Hale moved to lay the bill and amendments on the table, and the worldon was rejected by a vote of 185 years to 149 mays. The Speaker here announced the expiration of the morning hour. A resolution was adopted that the Speaker appoint a committee of seven to attend the funeral of Senator Morton, and, as a mark of respect to the deceased, the House afjourned. ator Morton was announced, and a resolution

The Senate was not in session on the 3d.In the House consideration of the bill for a repeal of the Resumption act was re-sumed, but the morning hour was consumed in motions to adjourn and the bill went over till the next morning hour. Other bills were introduced and referred, and the House adjourned till Monday.
